Rheumatism Relief--25c.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets). Are Helping Thousands Who Tried Expensive Things Without Result. It's Guaranteed.

There are three vital processes of human existence—the digestion of food, the excretion of nourishment from it and the elimination of waste. Poor digestion and assimilation means failure to derive full nourishment from food and that in turn often means impoverished blood, weakness, anemia, etc. Poor elimination means an accumulation of waste matter which poisons the body, lowers vitality, decreases the power of resistance to disease and leads to the development of many serious ills. Rheumatism, due to some interference with the process of elimination, failure to get rid of certain body poisons, cannot be expected to yield to any medicine that fails to correct the condition responsible for it. Could any reasonable person expect to rid himself of rheumatic pain as long as the rheumatic poison is allowed to remain in the body? Think of this: It explains the success of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets). In so many cases where other medicines have failed, thousands are using NR Tablets every day and getting relief. Why pay five or ten times as much for uncertain things? A box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), containing enough to last twenty-five days, must help you, must give you some comfort, some satisfactory benefit or cost you nothing. Nature's Remedy is not only for the relief of rheumatism. It improves digestion, tones the liver, regulates kidney and bowel action, improves the blood and cleanses the system. You've tried the expensive medicines and doctors, now make the real test. You'll get results this time. Just try it. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

79 COACHES IN SEVEN TRAINS CARRY R. R. MEN TO YOUNGSTOWN OUTING

Randolph of Dickerson Run Wins First Place in the 100-Yard Dash.

Special to The Courier.

DICKERSON RUN, Sept. 1.—The American Federation of Railroad Workers on the entire Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad system held its annual outing at Idora park, Youngstown, Ohio, Saturday, August 30, which, according to the park management, was the largest crowd that has ever assembled at the park. The weather was very threatening. In the morning it started to rain, but when Beaver was reached it had stopped and the sun came out in all its brightness. The park was dry and every thing lovely but by the time the trains were loaded for the return trip it started to rain again.

Seven special trains carried the picnickers to the park, 79 coaches being used. The Connelville train left Connelville at 6:30, arriving at Youngstown at 10 o'clock. There was one train from Brownsville, one from McKeesport and four from Pittsburgh and McKees Rocks, two of the trains doubling back to Pittsburgh. There were between 8,000 and 9,000 who availed themselves of the cheap rate, 25 cents for the round trip from Connelville to the park.

The railroad boys were on their good behavior, there was not a sign of trouble and a jolly bunch could not have been assembled. There were two members of the committee in charge of each train and there was no cause for any of the railroad cops riding the trains. A train master also traveled with each train to see that the schedule was kept at all times.

All games and races were pulled off in good shape. Dickerson Run carried off the honors in the races, "Tumble" Randolph winning the 100-yard dash for men. There were about 50 in the race.

All report having the time of their lives.

FURTHER COMPLICATIONS.

The ruling of the county commissioners that returned service men can qualify as voters at the approaching primary and general elections by the payment of a tax of 10 cents previous to registering, tends to further complicate the situation.

A few days ago Deputy Attorney General Hargest handed down the opinion that the 10-cent tax provision applied only to soldiers, sailors or marines who return to civil life too late to comply with the requirements which resident voters have to meet in order to establish their right to cast a ballot. It was at least implied, if not somewhat explicitly declared, that service men who return in time to be assessed, pay the regular poll tax and register, would have to do so, just the same as other male citizens of 22 years or older. According to the decision of the county commissioners, the special act interpreted by the deputy attorney general applies to all service men without regard to the time of their return, insofar as relates to the amount of the tax to be paid by them.

The opinion of Deputy Hargest did not say that service men qualifying within the time limit for being assessed, paying taxes and registering would be privileged to pay 10 cents instead of the regular poll tax, but he did say that the act requiring these requirements only in behalf of the men who returned after the time prescribed by the election laws for doing these things.

It is hoped the various interpretations of the law will not act to deprive a simple service man of his right to vote, but it would have been much better had there been a definite understanding of the matter before the first registration day.

ACTION, NOT INVESTIGATION, NEEDED.

The announcement that the Federal Trade Commission has begun an investigation of "wildcat" oil stocks is but another evidence of the slowness with which Washington moves in its efforts to afford protection to the people from the activities of violators of the law.

Months ago the authorities were appealed to to exercise their functions and powers to put a stop to the plundering of the public by the conscienceless grafters who thrive upon the gullibility of people inoculated with the get-rich-quick germ. The Post Office Department has repeatedly been urged to deny the use of the mails to the promoters of stock-selling enterprises. Efforts have all been made to stop the Department of Justice to action but nothing definite has resulted. In these particular Washington has shown a lamentable and inexcusable indifference. It has all along been within the power of the Post Office Department and the Department of Justice to do much in the matter of throwing safeguards about innocent holders of Liberty Bonds; many of whom, in their patriotism, made personal sacrifices to loan the money to the government. To leave them to the mercies of the scheming promoters and start off on an investigation of the already well-known methods by which they are mulcted of their earnings and savings, is little short of disgraceful.

But the predilection of Washington to "investigate" without accomplishing anything other than provide investigators with jobs and expend large sums of the people's money, seems to be so deeply grounded and rooted at the Capital that little hope can be entertained that confiding and trusting holders of Liberty Bonds will not continue to become victims of unscrupulous stock promoting concerns, pawn brokers, a certain class of bond buyers and a type of merchandising houses which are making huge profits through sacrifice sales or exchange of these government securities at prices far below their market value.

True, some people are unwilling to protect their own property, but in the case of Liberty Bond holders many do not know how. Starting a few promoters pre-war would be infinitely better as a means of protection than starting a perfunctory, lock-the-stable-after-the-horse-is-stolen sort of "investigation."

WORKING AND SAYING.

During the war the American people, with singular and praiseworthy unanimity and with the soundest common sense, realized that the situation could be met only by working and saving. The things we needed to prosecute the war had to be made and millions of willing hands were set to the task. Earnings were saved and given in generous measure to the war time agencies that were providing for the welfare, comfort and health of our fighting men. We felt the better for doing these things because it was a part of our patriotic duty in helping to win the war.

Now that quite as urgent necessity confronts to help win back the world to peace we have the same obligation to employ the means we used in the earlier emergency. The importance of applying ourselves diligently to the tasks involved in a restoration of normal conditions is just as great as it was that we apply ourselves in meeting the abnormal conditions resulting from war. That we cannot escape responsibility now any more than we could escape it earlier is made plain by the Bache Review which says:

After all, there is but one natural, powerful, and efficient way to lower the cost of living. That is, by increasing the production of things needed at a point where the supply of them is greater than the demand. This can be accomplished only by more work and more efficient work, and by economy of all the things in the use of things.

In the meantime, wages should be paid on a scale fully adjusting them to the level of increased cost of living. But the labor must be efficient and should be rewarded in proportion as it is efficient—extra reward based on extra efficiency.

High costs today, to a great percentage of such costs, are due to the fact that labor, while receiving large wages in many directions, is much less efficient as compared with what it accomplished before the war. In some cases where the output has been checked up, it is shown that labor is turning out only 60 per cent of normal.

If we can ever get our labor up to 100 per cent, we shall have such an increased production of needed things as will tip the scale of prices steadily downward—such a production as the Nation brought about when it sprang to meet the needs of war and which when the armistice came rather suddenly, showed that we were overwhelming the world with munitions, guns, gas, airplanes, trucks, and all other implements of destruction.

With the overwhelming demand for all the commodities and articles which the world needs in making ready to resume the even tenor of its way we have the same kind of a challenge to industry that we had when fighting was the world's chief business. The quicker we accept the challenge and buckle down to working with all our might and saving with all diligence the sooner will our country, and the whole world, get back to solid ground and the time will have arrived when we can take the leisure we shall have earned.

The returned service men are enjoying a distinction rare in these days of the high cost of living. They are getting out rates on poll taxes.

Advice is about the only thing President Wilson has expressed a willingness to give the Senate.

With the American Legion declaring "that it is immutably opposed to, and urges its membership to oppose, the admission to the national legislative body, or to any other public office, of persons of doubtful loyalty, and more especially of those whose disloyalty has been judicially determined," some candidates in some sections of the country may find difficulty in consulting with the officers to which they aspire.

The discovery that the shell-loading plant at Fort Delaware, estimated to cost from $1,250,000 to $1,500,000, actually cost $1,400,000, gives force and point to the recent protests of a treasury official about "an orgy of extravagant expenditure."

The average consumer will be disappointed to credit President Wilson with a keener vision than most mortals possess in having discovered "the progress which is being made in controlling the cost of living."

THE WILLING HORSE.
I'd rather be the willing horse that people ride to death than be the one that never needs that children dare not touch; I'd rather haul a merry pack and finish out of breath than leave the hard to toil because I'm worth too much; So boast your noble pedigree and talk of manners, if you please—The weary horse enjoys his ease when all his work is done.

The willing horse, day in and out, can hear the merry children shout and every time they are about: He shares in all their fun.

I want no guards beside my door to pick and choose my friends for me, I would not be shut off from men as is the fancy steed; I do not care when I go by that no one turns his eyes to see the dashing manner of my gait which marks my noble breed; I am content to trudge the road and willingly to draw my load—Sometimes I know the spur and goad when I begin to lag; I'd rather feel the collar jerk and have the whip to work. Than all the tasks of life to shirk As does the stylish nag.

So let me be the willing horse that people ride to death, Let me be the one that never needs that children dare not touch, Let me be the one that never needs that children dare not touch, Let me be the one that never needs that children dare not touch.

The League of Nations a Moral Issue

Eugene Thwing in Manufacturers Record

Part II

The League of Nations is in direct disobedience to the commands of God as given many centuries ago to His people when He delivered them from their oppressors, and delivered into the hands of His people those enemies of His who had defied Him and worked abominations in His sight.

"When the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee, then shalt thou smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them."

"Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son."

"For they will turn away thy son from following after Me, that they may serve other gods; so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you." (Deut. 7:2-4)

The "utterly destroy" in the first part of this command, evidently, in the light of what follows, does not mean slaughter, nor utter destruction of property, but complete destruction of power, and complete refusal of political and family alliances. The command is repeated many times, in various forms, emphasizing the need of separation between nations whose God is the Lord and the nations who will have none of Him. In the New Dispensation the command was made even more explicit:

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?" (II Cor. 6:14)

Among the 32 members of the League of Nations are many Pagan nations. Their presence in the Paris Peace Conference was one of the things, no doubt, which prevented the recognition of God and a turning to Him for guidance. The United States, a Christian nation, with only one vote in a total of 32, would certainly be "unequally yoked together with unbelievers," in disobedience of the command of God. The offense would be increased when Germany, that great worker of abominations, is admitted as a member of the League of Nations, and a subscriber to and beneficiary of the "Covenant." No good could come of this unequal yoking together, but only evil, as only evil has come during the first period of that yoke-fellowship. This wish and vote of the United States has been set at naught already by the wish and vote of pagans. It would be so again and again.

All this unequal yoking together has been covered up with finely-spun sentiment and unfulfillable promises; but God's people are warned against this very thing.

"Let no man deceive you with vain words, for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them, and have no fellowship with the unfaithful works of darkness." (Eph 5:6, 7, 11)

DEPLORES PAN-HANDLING BY DISCHARGED SOLDIERS

Improper commercialization of the army and navy uniform has become a wide-spread and serious problem that Secretary of War Newton D. Baker has officially requested Colonel Woods to take all possible steps to deter ex-soldiers from selling and to induce the public to refrain from buying articles sold by discharged service men on the strength of their uniforms. It is today announced by Colonel Arthur Woods, Assistant to the Secretary of War, who is in charge of the re-employment of discharged service men.

In his letter to Colonel Woods, Secretary Baker wrote as follows:

"Ex-soldiers are, in many instances, employed to peddle more or less worthless devices and articles, and sometimes, indeed, very shabby papers and mementoes of a pseudo-patriotic character, with the plain expectation that their uniform and their recent military service will appeal to the charity of passers-by. This brings the whole question of the uniform and of the splendid service which our soldiers have rendered the country into disrepute, and seems to imply that the country is failing to provide suitable and proper places of employment for discharged men. The work which you are doing has co-operated in placing throughout the country in such fashion that discharged soldiers can find profitable and useful employment, and I heartily wish that the people of the country could be induced to advise the young men they find peddling upon the streets to abandon such a dead-end employment and seek a more productive job, as well as one which has in it the opportunity of growth and progress."

"It is not necessary," says Colonel Woods, "for any man to wear his uniform in order to gain a decent living."

ATTENDING TO CHICKENS AND GARDEN

"My neighbors are surprised to see me looking so well, for they thought I would not live to see summer. I had such pain around my heart as to cause me to faint. I knew it came from bloating and pressure of gas in my stomach. A friend in St. Louis told me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and I now feel better than in a long time. I am doing my own work, attending to my chickens and my garden and have cleaned house." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the carter's miasma from the intestinal tract and always the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince of money refunded. A. A. Clarke and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

THE PARAMOUNT.

GOD'S OUTLAW—A five reel Met to production starring Beverly Bayne and Francis X. Bushman in today's first feature in the series. The tale is of a lost soul, a young lawyer who, after losing a young girl he loves and then after his mother to whom he was devoted. The double loss embitters him to such an extent that he believes he has found a way to escape his troubles. His hand of God is against him and he declares himself a religious outlaw. God's outlaw. He leaves the town of his misfortunes in search of a place where he begins his new life. Although his hands are against the church his greatest friend is the priest of the village (church) who recognizes the spiritual qualities of the young man. It is not long however before a finds happiness and renewed hope in a beautiful romance which leads him back to the faith he had foresworn. The play is cleverly enacted and as an exceptional cast. A selected comedy is also included. Tomorrow Mrs. McLaren will be starred in Fannie Hurst's great short story, "A Petal on the Green." This is a play which unlike the petal will never wither never fade from your memory. It is the most human of all Mrs. McLaren's stories.

THE SEASON

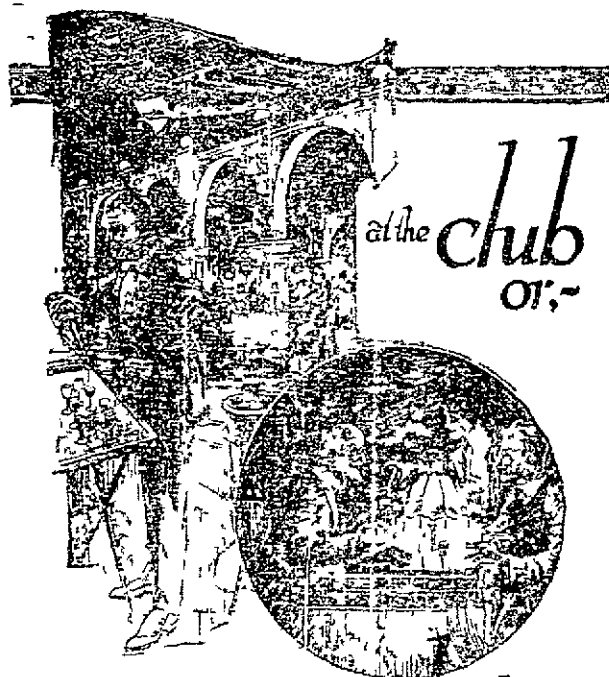

A MAN OF HONOR — A five reel screen classic with the late Harold Lockwood in a pleasing role as he is presented today. An stand in the Caribbean sea is its chief background and as shown in the movie, the sea is well represented. Eaton takes the lead as one of the girls with her masterful father played by Strickland and he and she are the three characters about whom the struggle takes place. The inscrupulous president of the company exploiting the tropical plants his manager to manipulate the yearly reports so as to bring up the stock. The manager fights for the stockholders' whether he is for or not. The story gives a clear insight into the get rich quick methods of some corporation heads. It is an unusually attractive picture. A selected comedy is also being shown on Wednesday and Thursday. George Walsh will be featured in Half Hot Police a William Fox comedy drama. This is a most amusing love story and between laughs and thrills here and there much space left for length.

DUNBAR TOWNSHIP PAIR KEEP WEDDING A SECRET FOR ALMOST TWO MONTHS

Miss Reine Carroll, Daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carroll,
Wedded July 8.

WAGE BOOST AT FURNACE

Special to The Courier.

DUNBAR, Sept. 2.—Once again the wedding bells were due to ring out, but their silver throats emitted no sound for nearly two months after the nuptial knot had made happy one of Dunbar's sweetest, sunniest girls and the fortunate man of her choice. The bride was Miss Reine, the youngest daughter of County Superintendent and Mrs. J. S. Carroll of Connelville street, and the groom is Edson Strong of Franklin township. Mrs. Strong is an exceptional girl, handsome, accomplished and popular, active in church, Sunday school and Red Cross work. No one would dream of calling her a shrew on any occasion, and yet it must be confessed that when the county Red Cross was having its big day at the home-coming at Connelville (July 8) she was not alone, the first time she had ever failed to do her bit. That occasion was chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Strong as an appropriate time, so they hid them to Pittsburgh and were married, returning home never breath of a word of it. The next day the bride went quietly back to her work as an engraver for F. J. McFarland and has been working regularly since. Mr. Strong returning to his Franklin township home, and the world moved on quietly till Labor Day when the wedding was announced. Instead of censuring her, her friends are showering on her their congratulations and sending mysterious packages of appreciation. Mr. Strong is employed with the Union Supply company at Monarch and has only recently returned from "over there."

The young couple have not mended their housekeeping plans yet, but it is probable they will locate at Monarch by the holidays. Here's wishing them long, happy, useful lives.

This seems to be a glad season of the year, and this month the most welcome of the year, for yesterday the American Manganese Manufacturing company gave a voluntary advance of 20 per cent to all employees about the furnace and allied plants. This makes wages higher than ever before in the history of Dunbar furnace. The raise did not affect those employed at the several mines of the company, they were working on the Erick scale.

The employees of the United Refractory company, formerly the United Fire Brick company, were given a voluntary 20 per cent advance in wages beginning September 1. This makes wages there higher than ever before. The plant is running full and has orders for months to come.

Monday the first pick was struck in the development of the new industry for Dunbar, the Dunbar Coal & Clay company, organized to develop the coal on the Henry Hardy estate one-half mile east of the furnace, and also the clay, firestone, etc. all of which abound on that property. The opening of the coal is the first work that will be done, the work of opening the mine being under the superintendency of James V. McClain of Pechin, an experienced miner and firebraker. After the coal has been opened the next thing will be the erection of a firebrick plant to use the clay the quality of which is fine and the quarry practically inexhaustible. In connection with the mining of the clay firestone will be quarried and the sand quarry opened and worked. A side gis to be built from the furnace connecting the plant with the N. H. & D. & R. The latter road connects with both the P. R. R. and the B. & O. featuring shipping facilities of the first order. The plant when fully opened and equipped will employ about two hundred men and in addition to having offices at the plant the company will have main and sales offices at Pittsburgh for the handling of shipment orders.

The company is incorporated, and in addition to the Hardy coal expects to acquire the adjoining coal several hundred acres of which is available. While it has not been definitely decided, it is probable that a number of homes will be erected for the accommodation of the company's employees. It is expected to have the coal mine open and "on" ready for shipment within two months.

J. B. Senor, daughter Margaret and son Harry and Mr. and Mrs. Ray G. Holmes returned Saturday from a two weeks visit to Atlantic City and Newport. While away they were in the Atlantic and had a ride in an airplane. While they enjoyed the latter, they prefer the automobile.

James O. Martin of Irkutown is again seriously ill. He had been very bad last winter, but with the coming of summer improved until he was able to go about. He celebrated his 50th birthday about a month ago, and was rapidly regaining his health. A severe cold contracted last week has given him a relapse, from which doubts are entertained as to his recovery.

Charles V. Hardy of Irkutown Friday night celebrated his 54th birthday with a number of his friends, among them David S. McDowell of Keffers. In addition to music and games they had a fine chicken dinner with all accompaniments and while no one was supposed to over-eat, Mr. McDowell had to be brought home in an auto the next morning but he is all right now. Mr. Hardy received many remembrances which he appreciates.

William Coleman of Keffers has dug and marketed $250 worth of ginseng roots this season. Mr. Coleman is in his 70th year, is the father of 20 children and can dig as much "ginseng" as the next one.

Having accidentally badly hurt his foot, "Bud" Miller of Keffers is not riding his bicycle this week.

Citizen Protests and Suggests That Something Be Done at Once.

A citizen whose attention was drawn to disfiguring by boys of the wooden statue of Zachariah Connell, standing in the alley in the rear of Dull's livery stable, today called the attention of The Courier to the fact, with the suggestion that something be done.

The figure is to be preserved by the Daughters of the American Revolution, according to an announcement some time ago but its removal from its present location has been delayed.

For Men Who Work Hard.

Factory workers, railroad men, farmers, miners, mail employees and all men who work at hard, straining physical labor are more or less subject to kidney trouble. Nature gives warning signals by frequent lameness, stiff joints, sore muscles, backache and rheumatic pains. J. G. Wolf, Green Bay, Wis., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills relieved me of a severe backache that had bothered me for several months. A few bottles fixed me up in good shape." Sold everywhere—Adv.

Sufferers from indigestion are apt to become discouraged and feel that complete recovery is not to be hoped for. Hundreds have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and can now eat anything that they desire. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you have not tried them do so at once.—Adv.

He Wanted to Know.

A well-known St. Louis society woman has some very interesting and intelligent grandchildren, and this is the story she tells upon herself. Her little grandson, looking puzzled, said to her: "Grandmother, how does it come that your name is Brown and father's name is Smith, when you are his mother?" These are, of course, not the names, but they will do for the story.

"I'll explain, dear," said grandmother. "You see, I had several names. First my name was White, then I married your father's father, Mr. Smith, and I became Mrs. Smith and that is your father's name. Then he died and I married Mr. Brown."

"And where is Mr. Brown?" asked the child.

"He is dead, too," said grandmother. "Then what will be the name of the next man you will marry?"

"Well, I couldn't say right off," said grandmother. "I'll have to think about that."

Why Not Raise More Sheep?

The fur that warms a monarch warms the bear. But the wool that warms a sheep makes two good suits for a man.

Only one sheep in twelve living today is an American sheep, although Americans require a quarter of all the fleeces every year.

Farmers and ranchers could double their flocks and still they would not supply enough wool for our home use, declares "Gild" in the Philadelphia Press. We need in the United States more than a sheep for every person, and that accounts partly for your dear lamb chops and leg of mutton.

But it isn't expensive wool alone that boosts the price of your new spring suit.

The wool in a $70 suit stands the maker less than a tenth of what you pay for it.

University to Teach Business Methods. Four new professorships are to be established at Edinburg university, i. e., zoology, forestry, psychology (mental diseases), and accounting and business methods. The salaries in the first-named two have been fixed at $3,000 and in the other two at $4,500. The sum of $75,000 has been raised by a number of citizens in Edinburg and Leith, (Scotland), to endow the chair of accounting and business methods. It is also understood that funds for a lectureship in another branch of commerce are about to be provided by the same subscribers.
